

cooperation and working together for health gain and social well being in border areas

Department of Health, Social Services and Public Safety
An Roinn
Sláinte, Seirbhísí Sóisialta
agus Sábháilteachta Poiblí
www.dheaspirni.gov.uk

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND CHILDREN
AN ROINN
SLÁINTE
AGUS LEANAÍ

Project part financed by the European Union

10.15-10.20	Welcome address	Mr Joe Lusby Deputy Chief Executive WHSCT and CAWT Secretariat
10.20-10.30	Renal Project Background	Dr Peter Garrett Consultant Nephrologist, Tyrone County Hospital
10.30-10.45	Delivering Comprehensive Renal Care: Current Difficulties and Potential Solutions	Dr Paul McKeveney Consultant Nephrologist, Daisy Hill Hospital, Newry
10.45-10.55	Electronic Patient Records in Dialysis Care	Dr Kieran Hannan Consultant Nephrologist, Cavan General Hospital, HSE DNE
10.55-11.05	ICT Solutions in Dialysis Delivery	Ms Anne McCahill Acting ICT Project Manager, Health Service Executive DNE
11.05-11.30	Lessons from Northern Ireland	Professor Peter Maxwell Consultant Nephrologist, Belfast City Hospital
11.30-12.00	Benefits of Renal Registries: A focus on Vascular Access and Outcomes	Dr Donal Reddan Consultant Nephrologist, Merlin Park Hospital, Galway, Health Service Executive West
12.00-12.15	The Patient Perspective	Mr Karl Cronin Secretary of the Irish Kidney Patients Association
12.15-12.30	Discussion
12.30-13.15	LUNCH – Photographs
13.15-13.45	The Scottish and UK Registries: what for and what next?	Prof Neil Turner Consultant Nephrologist, Royal Infirmary Edinburgh
13.45-14.15	Findings from the CAWT Renal Project	Dr. Austin Stack Consultant Nephrologist, Regional Kidney Centre, HSE West
14.15-14.45	Irish Renal Registry-the Vision	Dr Liam Plant Consultant Nephrologist, Cork University Hospital
14.45-15.00	Way forward – Discussion

Feidhmeannacht na Seirbhíse Sláinte
Health Service Executive

WESTERN HEALTH AND SOCIAL SERVICES BOARD

Southern Health & Social Services Board